Palace Theatre Presents:

BLACK HISTORY MONTH CELEBRATION
Wednesday, February 24
7:00PM

Each year, February 1st marks the beginning of Black History Month in the U.S., a time to celebrate African American heritage and the legacy of extraordinary contributions that they have made to the fabric of our nation.

Typically, we would be gearing up to host events like the annual Step Show, and educational performances that highlight some of the remarkable African Americans in our history. While COVID won't allow us to host these events in person this year, it won't stop us from shining a spotlight on some of the incredibly talented people in our own community. Join us on Wednesday, February 24 at 7PM for a free virtual evening of art, music, dance and spoken word by some of the most talented Black artists in the Capital Region.

This program will stream for free on the Palace Theatre's YouTube Page at <https://bit.ly/PalaceAlbanyYoutube>

PRESENTED BY: CAP COM Federal Credit Union

SUPPORTED BY: Whitney Young Health
